Coaching Training Contract

Welcome to the Nuri.sh Coach Training Program (NCTP)! You are about to embark on an exciting educational adventure. In preparation, please review the details of your coach training program policies below and then sign and date. (If you are registering online, by checking the "terms and conditions" box, you are agreeing to the policies below.)

Coach Training Program Date
January-May 2023

Coach Training Program Details
Trainees understand that they will receive the following as a part of their Coach Training Program: 32 hours of live, virtual group coach training, 8 hours of semi-private supervised internship training and 14 hours of business marketing training via an in-person retreat. Trainees will be taught coaching outcomes based on ICF competencies with the addition of somatic work, breath work and other client breakthrough tools. Trainees understand that NCTP is not accredited through ICF. Accreditation through ICF is a completely separate process and is not guaranteed as a part of NCTP. ICF may or may not accept NCTP's curriculum towards their required training hours. Trainees take full responsibility for meeting ICF's standards on their own following graduation.

Participation for the Coach Training Program
Trainees agree to attend all classes, barring illness or emergency, and to complete all required homework prior to attending virtual class. The quality of the program depends upon the preparedness and active participation of all members. Trainees commit to prepare and contribute with excellence (not perfection) for the sake of their own and their peers' experience. Trainees understand that they are allowed to miss two Coach Training classes, while completing make-up work, and still qualify to graduate. Trainees take full responsibility to make up any and all work missed as a result of their absence.

Graduation Requirements for the Coach Training Program
Payment to attend each course does not guarantee qualification at the completion of the program. The registrant must successfully meet the requirements of the course in order to be qualified to receive any credentials or certifications. Trainees must be able to DEMONSTRATE integration of the NCTP skills during internship in order to earn their certificate as a Nuri.sh Coach. Successful demonstration of these outcomes will result in the trainee receiving her Nuri.sh Coach Certificate. Those who do not meet these requirements but do complete the program will be considered "Graduates" of the program but will not be "Certified."

Remedial Policies for the Coach Training Program
Should a trainee not meet these graduation requirements, she will be given the opportunity to complete the following additional work in order to receive her Nuri.sh Coach Certificate after the completion of the NCTP. She will participate in forty-five-minute, one-on-one supervised coaching sessions with Jennie Turton Miculit or a Nuri.sh Facilitator. In these sessions she will coach her Trainer/Facilitator on a topic, demonstrating the coaching outcomes that she did not master during the program. The cost of these 45 minute, one-on-one sessions are $125/session. Trainees will be invited to schedule sessions weekly until all outcomes are mastered.

Payment
The NCTP cost is $5995 if paid in full. The cost of the program is $6595 if a payment plan option is chosen. In the latter case, a $995 deposit is to be paid upon registration. Trainees agree to pay remaining installments on time via online invoice. Payments of $3000 will be made Week #1 and 6. Class attendance will be allowed only if payment is received - no exceptions. Coach Certificates will not be administered unless full payment is received by the above deadlines. Trainees agree to pay for the full cost of the program whether or not she chooses to complete the training.

Refund and drop-out policy
It is the trainee's responsibility to notify Jennie Turton Miculit if she intends to drop the course. No refunds will be given after November 15, 2022 or the close of registration, whichever comes first. If a refund is requested prior to that date, the trainee will need to delete her digital training manual. If the trainee registered for the program within 48 hours of his or her consultation with the Nuri.sh Team and received free books as a result, the cost of those books will be subtracted from the refund upon issue.

Should the trainee decide to discontinue training after November 15, 2022 or after registration has closed, she agrees to delete her training manual (with no refund) and still make all remaining payments. She will in no way associate him/herself with Jennie Turton Miculit, the Nuri.sh Coach Training Program or Invigorate Life Coaching, Inc. for marketing purposes, as she will not be considered a certified coach by the above organizations/individuals. Failure to make full payment for the entire program, despite drop-out, will result in legal action.

Course Rescheduling
In order to allow for an optimal learning experience, in the event that Nuri.sh does not have 8 trainees enrolled in this cohort, the cohort start date will be bumped back by 30 days to allow for us to reach this minimum number of enrolled trainees. We will continue to bump back the start date of the course in 30 day increments as needed until the quota has been reached. Should enrolled trainees not be able to participate in the new start date of the program, Nuri.sh will refund the deposit paid for the course.

Agreement

By signing this document, I acknowledge that I understand and agree with the above information. I understand that certification via the Nuri.sh Coach Training Program is not guaranteed. I take full responsibility for my learning experience. I will be provided with all of the materials and training that I need to meet the certification outcomes, and I agree to take full responsibility for the earning of my Nuri.sh Coach Certificates. I agree to hold harmless Invigorate Life Coaching, the Nuri.sh Coach Training Program and Coach Trainers/Facilitators, and Jennie Turton Miculit from all liabilities and claims which may arise as a result of my participation in coaching and/or coach training and the use of my training or coaching in the future.
